

Susan Beckman

Arapahoe County Commissioner, District 1

Susan Beckman is serving her third term as Commissioner representing District 1. She is well known for her commitment and dedication to improving Arapahoe County.

Susan believes the role of a commissioner is to create a well managed county that is a responsible steward of the taxpayer's dollar. She is a strong fiscal conservative and believes in accountability back to the people she serves.

Susan is a strong advocate for her district and focuses her time on economic development, senior services, veteran services, transportation and land-use planning. She has been a leader of many transportation projects involving safety and congestion mitigation in the south metro Denver area.

As Commissioner, Susan serves as the County's Financial Officer and oversees the Human Resources department. Susan has been recognized regionally for her leadership roles at the Denver Regional Council of Governments, the Metro Area County Commissioners and the Metro Area Urban Drainage and Flood Control District.

Susan grew up with her five brothers and sisters in Trinidad, Colorado. She moved to Littleton after graduating from Colorado State University – Pueblo. Susan and her husband Bruce have two children attending Colorado State University in Ft. Collins, Colorado.
