MEDIA ADVISORY

SHERIFF AND DISTRICT ATTORNEY TO HOST VICTIM'S RIGHTS EVENT

On Thursday April 14, 2005 at 6:30 P.M., Arapahoe County Sheriff Grayson Robinson and District Attorney Carol Chambers will host a candle light vigil and reception, in recognition of National Victim's Rights Week. The Arapahoe County National Victim's Rights Week event will be held at the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office at 13101 East Broncos Parkway.

Immediately following the candle light vigil, the media and guests are encouraged to attend a reception, which will feature the ROADSIDE MEMORIAL PROJECT. The ROADSIDE MEMORIAL PROJECT is a meaningful and moving photographic display of memorials for victims of fatal traffic crashes.

For additional information contact Sheriff Grayson Robinson at 720.874.4165 or District Attorney Carol Chambers at 720.874.8555.
