Arapahoe County 4-H invites you to a Share Fair at The Wildlife Experience

Littleton, Colo. --- Arapahoe County 4-H Clubs are hosting their inaugural Share Fair at The Wildlife Experience Museum on Sunday, Feb. 27, in Parker. The fair will feature twelve of the County's award-winning 4-H clubs, and also will include exhibits on County Wildlife Masters, Master Gardeners, Agriculture, Consumer and Family Science, and an update on the County's future Fairgrounds and Regional Park.

Admission is $3 per adult and $1.50 per child, and includes full access to the Wildlife Experience Museum, including featured The Horse in Fine Art and American Birds exhibits - kids can even take part in a Hands On Education Learning Center, The Children's Gallery.

"4-H clubs create supportive environments where culturally diverse youth and adults are able to reach their fullest potential," said Lisa Taylor, Youth Development and Enrichment Coordinator for the Colorado State University Cooperative Extension for Arapahoe County. "We hope the Share Fair will encourage more youth to join programs that help them become capable, competent citizens, and strengthen families to create strong, safe communities."

There is a photography / video opportunity for the media this week. For more information, contact Katrina Seymour at 303-636-1945:
