Volunteers needed for Arapahoe County's Community Service Program

LITTLETON, CO --- Volunteer Connections, Arapahoe County's volunteer program, is seeking volunteers for their Alternative (Community) Service and Useful Public Service Program, which provides the courts with a meaningful sentencing option for offenders who have demonstrated a sufficient responsibility to the community, family and employment.

Volunteers perform a variety of interviewing, caseload management and intake placement responsibilities including coordinating services of County and District Courts, attorneys, probation officers and other community service providers.

This volunteer opportunity operates out of two locations, 15400 E. 14th Place in Aurora and 1690 W. Littleton Blvd. Suite 103 in Littleton. For more information on this unique volunteer opportunity or to have an application packet mailed, call Val Purser at 303-738-7938 or visit www.co.arapahoe.co.us.
