Call for Entries – a painter, a baker, or a quilt maker Arapahoe County Fair hosts Open Class competitions for citizens

Littleton, Colo. --- Whether you're a painter, a baker, or a quilt maker, you are invited to compete in the 2007 Arapahoe County Fair Open Class competition.

Citizens, young and old, from around the state can compete in fine arts (photography, painting, drawing, quilting and culinary arts) or horticulture (flowers, veggies, etc.). The baked goods category will include breads, cakes and cookies. Submit your best and you may take home that bold blue ribbon along with a cash prize and bragging rights that last an entire year. Each entry will receive educational comments from judges.

The pre-entry deadline for the fine arts categories is July 2. There is no pre-entry deadline for horticulture and floriculture. Each entry costs only $1 and entries can be filled out online at www.arapahoecountyfair.com or call 303-730-1920 to request an Open Class Fair Book; the pre-entry form is on page 17.

So Settle In with the Arapahoe County Fair sponsored by KYGO and Comcast from July 18-22, 2007 located at 25690 E. Quincy Avenue in Aurora. If you missed out last year, this year promises to be bigger and better, and we're making it easier with our Pay One Price admission.

For a complete list of open class competition rules, schedules and more, visit www.arapahoecountyfair.com.
