Lend a hand at the Arapahoe County Fair

Littleton, Colo.— Arapahoe County is looking for more than 200 volunteers for the 2007 Arapahoe County Fair, July 18-22, 2007. Volunteers are needed for children's activities, information guides, admission greeters, selling memorabilia and managing entertainment.

Volunteers are key to the success of this annual community event and allow the County to keep the costs of offering a county fair as low as possible. Plus volunteers add a unique sense of community and energy to the fair.

Volunteering at the County Fair is a terrific way to get involved in your own community. As a volunteer, you receive free admission to the fair on the day(s) you work. Sign up is easy. Just go to www.arapahoecountyfair.com, click the 'volunteers' link, download and complete a volunteer application form.

The fair will have a carnival double the size of last year, and there will be fireworks, catch and release fishing, a petting zoo, 4-H and Open Class competitions, livestock auction, amateur rodeos, a draft horse show, tractor pulls and the popular mutton' bustin. Musical entertainment includes Wendy Woo, Opie Gone Bad, Groove Hawgs and the Doo-Wah Riders.

For more information, call Val Purser, Volunteer Coordinator, at 303-738-7938 or send her an e-mail at vpurser@co.arapahoe.co.us. For general fair info, visit www.arapahoecountyfair.com.
