Arapahoe County appoints new Veterans Service Officer Corinne Hogg to oversee the Arapahoe County Veterans Service Office

Littleton, Colo. --- Arapahoe County has appointed Corinne Hogg as the County Veterans Service Officer where she will oversee the program that supports veterans obtaining their federal benefits. As a former Staff Sergeant Marine with eight years active duty and three years of reserve service, and past Administrative chief at Buckley Air National Guard, she's no stranger to the life of a veteran.

"Corinne Hogg is incredibly well versed as it relates to serving veterans," said Arapahoe County Commissioner Jim Dyer. "Her broad range of experience will allow us to continue to serve the 50,000+ veterans living in Arapahoe County."

Having spent years helping veterans in state and county systems with her previous employers including the Military Order of the Purple Heart, the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment as a Disabled Veterans Outreach Program Specialist, Hogg brings a wealth of expertise to the program.

Hogg plans to reach out to all of Arapahoe County's veterans, determine if they are eligible for benefits, and support them through the application process. In addition to her duties as a service officer, Hogg is active in the local United Veterans Committee and is a lifetime member of the American Legion, Woman's Marine Association, and the Disabled American Veterans.

Veterans in need of assistance can call 303-636-1190 or visit the Arapahoe County Veterans Service Office, within Arapahoe/Douglas Works! at 5500 S. Quebec in Greenwood Village.

If you are interested in being a veteran volunteer and helping fellow veterans, call Volunteer Connections, Arapahoe County's volunteer program at 303-738-7938.
