L. NARRATIVE

On May 21, 2009, at about 11:45 P.M. Sergeant Bruce Peterson was patrolling the Highline Meadows apartment complex when he heard noises coming from a laundry and storage room located inside 50 East Highline Circle. Sergeant Peterson investigated and observed two subjects attempting to pry open storage lockers. The subjects were detained at gunpoint until cover arrived and were identified as:

Travis R. Nicoletti Age 23
50 East Highline Circle #101
Centennial, Colorado

Brian M. Roe Age 27
6620 South Grant Street
Centennial, Colorado

Roe admitted that the two of them were prying open storage lockers searching for items to steal. Roe was in possession of a six-inch screwdriver that was used as a pry tool. Nicoletti denied involvement and stated he had just been released from the Sterling Correctional Facility on April 25, 2009. Both Nicoletti and Roe were taken into custody and transported to the Arapahoe County Sheriff's Office Detentions Facility. Both suspects are being held on a $6,000.00 bond pending the filing of criminal charges:

18-4-203 Second Degree Burglary: a class 4 felony.
18-4-205 Possession of Burglary Tools: a class 6 felony.
18-4-501 Criminal Mischief Under $500.00: a class 2 misdemeanor.

Nicoletti is also being held without bond for an alleged parole violation.
